DAYS ONE AND TWO – Travel to New York's Turning Stone Casino Resort

We begin with a welcome dinner and overnight in Ohio before coming to the Empire State. We make our way across upstate New York to the beautiful Turning Stone Casino Resort, our home for the night. (2 Dinners and breakfast)

DAY THREE – Hudson River Cruise

We arrive in the Hudson Valley in time for lunch at Mariner's Harbor Restaurant for waterfront dining overlooking the historic Hudson River. After lunch, we climb aboard the Rip Van Winkle, a modern 300 passenger vessel, for an unforgettable cruise past picturesque lighthouses, millionaire's sumptuous estates lining the beautiful Hudson River. Later, we check into our hotel where a delicious dinner awaits. (Breakfast, lunch and dinner)

DAY FOUR – The Best of the Hudson Valley

This morning a local guide joins us for a tour of Hyde Park. The highlight is a visit to Franklin D. Roosevelt's Home and Library, the birthplace and home to our 32nd President, preserved as he knew it during the closing years of his life. We then visit the Culinary Institute of America (CIA) where a narrated tour given by a current CIA student shows us the institute. Lunch here, a culinary experience, is also included. We'll also visit the Frederick Vanderbilt Mansion, a fine example of Beaux Arts architecture. Built in 1896-98, the mansion affords magnificent views of the Hudson River and Catskill Mountains. At the impressive Rhinecliff Hotel, a historic railway hotel built in 1854, we are given a chocolate and wine presentation hosted by renowned chocolatier, Oliver Kita, before our included dinner at the Rhinecliff. (Breakfast, lunch and dinner)

DAY FIVE – U.S. Military Academy and Mohonk Mountain House

At the U. S. Military Academy a local guide takes on a narrated tour of the campus of West Point. The Academy's mission is to educate, train and inspire the Corps of Cadets to serve the nation as an officer in the US Army. While on the campus, we also visit the West
